

Organizational Culture	Describe your organizational culture taking into account that your department's culture might be different to the organizational culture Of your department / project team Traditional ----- Innovative Closed ----- Open Risk-Averse ----- Risk-Taking Hierarchical ----- Horizontal Bureaucratic ----- Flexible Homogenous ----- Interdisciplinary High decisive power ----- Low decisive power Other important aspects Of your organization Traditional ----- Innovative Closed ----- Open Risk-Averse ----- Risk-Taking Hierarchical ----- Horizontal Bureaucratic ----- Flexible Homogenous ----- Interdisciplinary High decisive power ----- Low decisive power Other important aspects:
Political and social context	Write down the political, social and cultural context in the city, municipality, region or country (whatever applies) where the data processing will take place. Citizens trust towards government Historical controversies around privacy and transparency Recent scandals on privacy Recent scandals on transparency Citizens demand <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● more transparency ● more privacy Other important aspects:
Regulation and Guidelines	Write down the key elements of the legal environment you are operating in, think of four aspects: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Data Protection Regulation 2. Open Government Commitment 3. Freedom of Information Requests 4. Municipality Guidelines on Data Handling Other important aspects: